Sarva Dharma Sam Bhava under Indian Secular practice, all religions are equal.
7. Write the precis for the following. 10
- The Indian Government proposed to change the laws relating to rape and provide capital punishment for a rapist. This is tune with the punishment mentioned in the old testament of Moses and the Holy Quran. It is called "Rajm" in Arabic and Hebrew. It means killing a criminals by stoning by people. In the days of prophet Mohammed, when a Jewish man and women belonging to a high family committed adultery, they were flogged. This case was brought before prophet Mohammed. He opined that the punishment for culprits should be stoning to death. The man and women were punished accordingly. Rape being a bigger crime than Adultery, the punishment should be more severe so that it would be a deterrent not to commit such heinous crimes. Before in forcing such punishments all indecent exposures in the form of beauty contests and modelling, beach scences have to be discarded and totally banned. This would eliminate all form of provocation to commit crimes against women.
