1. Write the precis of the following passage with suitable title :

The spirit of sportsmanship is what we are lacking in today. Sports tell us that we should take a defeat or disappointment with a smile. We should not go about insisting on our success in whatever we attempt. It is not possible for every man to succeed in every desire which he has. There may be ambitions of groups, there may be ambitions of individuals which they set before themselves and they must try, if they are disappointed in the carrying out of their ambitions, to take that disappointment and that defeat with a smile and not take law in their own hands. What will happen if every individuals in the street wishes to go his own particular way without observing the rules of traffic; there will be clashes, there will be accidents. What happens on the road-side will also happen in the public activities, in the public life of the country.

2. (a) Write the paraphrasing of the following :

It would be impossible for us to continue living in this world if each of us knew exactly what fate had in store for him. So God in his mercy conceals the future from all his creatures and reveals only the present. He hides from the animals what men know and he hides from men what the angels know. For example, if a lamb had reason like a man, it could not gambol happily, knowing it was destined to be killed for human food. But being quite ignorant of its fate, it is happy to the last minute of its short life contentedly grazing in the flowery meadow and even in its innocence licks the hand of the butcher who is about to slaughter it. What a blessing it is that we are ignorant of the future. God to whom the death of a sparrow is of equal importance with the death of a hero has in his mercy thus limited our knowledge, so that we might fulfil our duty in the sphere to which he has appointed us. 8
