

Master of Library and Information Science Semester-II Examination
INFORMATION ANALYSIS, REPACKAGING AND CONSOLIDATION
ML-203

Time : Three Hours]

[Maximum Marks : 80

Note :- (1) Attempt all FIVE questions.

(2) All questions carry equal marks.

1. Write on :

- (a) Define information analysis.
- (b) Methods of information analysis.
- (c) Types of abstract.
- (d) Guidelines for preparation of abstract.

OR

- (e) Define abstract and abstracting.
- (f) Need of abstract.
- (g) Steps in abstracting.
- (h) Need of information analysis.

2. Write on :

- (a) What do you mean by information repackaging ?
- (b) Agencies dealing with repackaging of information.
- (c) Need of CAPS.
- (d) Techniques of Electronic content creation.

OR

- (e) Methods of formatting of information.
- (f) Utility of information repackaging for researchers.
- (g) Objectives of electronic content creation.
- (h) Importance of CAPS.

3. What is information consolidation ? Describe the pre-requisites and tools for information consolidation.

OR

Define information consolidation. Describe steps in information consolidation.

4. Write on :

- (a) Nature of information consolidation product.
- (b) User Manual.
- (c) Importance of index.
- (d) Union catalogue.

OR

- (e) Objectives of Abstract bulletin.
- (f) Library bulletin.
- (g) Trend report.
- (h) State of the art report.

5. What is information analysis and consolidation centre ? Write functions and activities of information analysis and consolidation centre.

OR

Write essay on planning and management of information analysis and consolidation centres.

