

AU-1120

M.Sc. (Home Science) (Resource Management) Semester-I Examination*111PM46 : PRINCIPLES OF MANAGEMENT

Time : 2.30 Hours]

[Maximum Marks : 60

1. Explain :
  - 1.1 Define management as a system. 2
  - 1.2 Open system. 2
  - 1.3 Closed system. 2
  - 1.4 Family sphere. 2
  - 1.5 Advantages of system approach. 2
  - 1.6 Limitations of system approach. 2
2. Explain the principles of planning in business administration. 12

OR

- Explain the principles of organising in business administration. 12
3. Explain the need of guiding and motivation in business administration. 12

OR

- Explain recruitment and appraisal in business administration. 12
4. 4.1 Match the following :

|                             |                                             |   |
|-----------------------------|---------------------------------------------|---|
| 4.1.1 Factual mode          | (a) A technique in decision making          | 1 |
| 4.1.2 Identify the problem  | (b) A step in decision making process       | 1 |
| 4.1.3 Cost benefit analysis | (c) A mental process                        | 1 |
| 4.1.4 Decision making       | (d) Uses phrases denoting facts             | 1 |
| 4.1.5 Mode                  | (e) Decision made without conscious thought | 1 |
| 4.1.6 Impulsive decision    | (f) A decision style                        | 1 |

|       |                                                                                                                                                                 |   |
|-------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|
| 4.2   | Explain :                                                                                                                                                       |   |
| 4.2.1 | Decision tree                                                                                                                                                   | 2 |
| 4.2.2 | Programmed decisions                                                                                                                                            | 2 |
| 4.2.3 | Define decision making process.                                                                                                                                 | 2 |
| 5.    | Do as directed :                                                                                                                                                |   |
| 5.1   | Explain the role of cook in cottage stay.                                                                                                                       | 3 |
| 5.2   | Importance of setting group goal in cottage stay.                                                                                                               | 2 |
| 5.3   | Peer evaluation.                                                                                                                                                | 2 |
| 5.4   | Explain the role of manager in cottage stay.                                                                                                                    | 2 |
| 5.5   | True or false :                                                                                                                                                 |   |
| 5.5.1 | Listing commodities and services needed and wanted by family members is a step of making family budget.                                                         | 1 |
| 5.5.2 | The students in their cottage stay have varying degrees of freedom to organise their own activities, handle their own money and practice genuine choice making. | 1 |
| 5.5.3 | The resident course is built upon practical application of management to a guest house like situation.                                                          | 1 |